SURREXIT CHRISTUS! CHRIST IS RISEN!

HRH THE PRINCE PHILIP, DUKE OF EDINBURGH

Together with HM the Queen, the Royal Family and so many people throughout the world, we mourn the death of this beloved husband and father. Let us pray that he, and all those who in their baptism received the promise of eternal life, may share in the resurrection of Christ. As he served his country for so many years, so may he now hear these words of our Divine Master: "Well done, good and faithful servant!" (Mt 25.23)

THANK YOU!

Many thanks to all those who help in this church. In the past year we have seen how generously the stewards have come forward to ensure that we could continue to worship here, while all the time remaining as safe as possible. We are also very grateful to those who look after the needs of the church in so many other ways, making sure that the building and everything in it is clean and tidy. Also to be thanked are the Readers, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion and Altar Servers who all play an important role in the life of this community.

OFFERTORY ENVELOPES

New boxes of Offertory (Planned Giving) Envelopes are available from the Sacristy for those who have been using them during the past year. If you used the envelopes in 2019 - 2020, but did not use them last year, and would like to resume, please contact the Parish Office. However, it is much more convenient for all involved, if you can support the work of this parish by Standing Order. To find out how to start a Standing Order, please find out details from the Parish Office. Clearly when such giving is Gift Aided, the parish benefits more at no extra cost to the donor. This parish, like so many charities, has seen a significant drop in its income during the pandemic. The generosity of those who continued their regular donations has helped immensely in this difficult time.

RECOLLECTION MORNING

On Thursday 15th April we will resume the Reflection Mornings. These take place once a month, from 10.30 am - 1.00 pm. This is a time to reflect on the way we live our faith in our daily work, family life and relationships. Meditations on the central themes of the Catholic faith are given by a priest of Opus Dei. The recollection will include Holy Mass and time is allocated for reading, private prayer and confessions. For more information please contact Sally Gloyne: sallygloyne@gmail.com

HEAD OF COMMUNICATIONS

Our neighbour on the South Bank of the Thames, the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Southwark, wishes to recruit a Head of Communications, initially on a 2 year fixed term contract, to develop and implement a communications strategy. Based in Central London the job holder will be responsible for an audit of all current communications tools and approaches, as well as ensuring all ongoing communications operations meet the highest standards possible. The ideal candidate will have thorough knowledge of the Catholic church as well as 10 years plus experience in a senior communications role in a not for profit organisation. He/she will have exemplary written and verbal communication skills and proven experience in both proactive and reactive (crisis) communications through all media. This is a full time role with a starting salary range of £55,000 - £60,000 per annum depending upon skills and experience. We may consider part time for the right candidate. For information and to apply please contact sarahwood@rcaos.org.uk by the closing date of 6th April.
