ST THOMAS MORE MEMORIAL

Given our church's historic connection with our patron, St Thomas More, and the fact that all the other artwork in the nave has been restored, it has been proposed that it would also be a good idea to restore the coat of arms above the St Thomas More memorial altar. What do you think about this suggestion?

CARDINAL IN PRISON

Cardinal Vincent joined prisoners at HMP Wormwood Scrubs on 19 January in a Synodal Pathway listening session. The Cardinal, who is President of the Prison Advice & Care Trust (Pact), told the prisoners that he particularly wanted 'to listen to those who can often be forgotten'. For more details see: rcdow.org.uk/cardinal/news/cardinal-listens-to-prisoners-at-hmp-wormwood-scrubs/

FOOD FOR HOMELESS PEOPLE

Please remember the box in the church porch marked "Food for Homeless People". You can support those whose lives are not going so well by leaving their donations of non-perishable food (tins or packets). What you give will be handed on to Glass Door, a local charity caring for those who have no place to call their home. To find out more about their work and how you can help them see glassdoor.org.uk

FOR PARENTS

"The Way, the Truth, and the Life": religious education resources have a new website and digital store: wtl-tere.org. They are now available in digital format, with an interface that works on all devices. To get a 33% discount, use the promotional code 33off at checkout. Also available: "Exploring the Mass, with Cardinal Vincent Nichols". A brilliant resource to help everyone, young and old. Understand what happens at Mass and how we can participate in it.
